

The Peace of Islam Visits the U. K.

Mohammed's Maggots continue their actions in Great Britain to promote peace and understanding according to the Islamic tradition. On 22 March 2017, five people were killed in Westminster by a member of the Smiling Jihad who ran people over with a vehicle and then stabbed several others, causing six fatalities and 40 injuries. On 22 May 2017, another loving Moslem set off a bomb at a concert venue in Manchester, killing 22 and injuring 120 or so. On 3 Jun 2017 it was three of Allah's loyal servants running people over on London Bridge and then stabbing whoever they could. There were seven fatalities and 48 injured. In response to this last attack, British Prime Minister Theresa May issued a statement (1.5 official harrumphs - serious indeed):

"Since the emergence of the threat from Islamist-inspired terrorism our country has made significant progress in disrupting plots and protecting the public. But it is time to say enough is enough. We cannot and must not pretend that things can continue as they are."

I am not a subject of the Queen, so it is not my place to criticize the U.K.'s policies. But I can put this into an American perspective. We have a certain number of Mohammed's Maggots in the U.S., just as in the U. K., allowed here because our bureaucrats and politicians, like in the U. K., believe that all cultures and all religions are equal. They have failed to realize that Islam was founded as a political religion, designed by Mohammed to get the Arab tribes to cast off their petty gods and idols, and give allegiance to one big idol (Allah), thus uniting the squabbling Arab tribes into a potent military and political force. In the first century of its existence, the Arab tribes under the spell of Islam successfully conquered the entire Middle East except Persia, all of northern Africa, and what is now Spain (it was then called the Kingdom of the Visigoths). Because our politicians regard all cultures and religions as equal, they are not willing to recognize that Islam is at war with both Western culture and any religion that is not Islamic.

Now that a certain number of them are in the U. S., our ever-spineless government officials treat the Islamic threat as just another series of crimes. They are afraid to offend the Moslems; instead attempt to rationalize their actions. Our former federal administration would not even admit the existence of Islamic "peace" until a month before it left office. It is a true lesson of history: if you treat acts of war like crimes, you will lose the war. The people of the U. K. have been victimized many times in recent years, and it is likely that we in the U. S. will eventually experience the same thing, given the pansy-style approach adopted by our leaders. Sooner or later we Americans will corral our politicians and bureaucrats and demand of them, "When are you clowns going to get off your fat lazy lard-asses, and do your damn job to get Mohammed's Maggots out of our country?"

When that day comes, the political and bureaucratic wimpy-boys will laugh in our faces, and tell us: a) there's nothing to worry about; b) it is only a minor crime wave; c) Islamophobia is not a viable policy, and d) we can't kill our way out of this problem. Their rationale is obvious: none of the attacks by Mohammed's Maggots affect them personally. Neither Barack Obama, George W. Bush, Bill Clinton, Donald Trump, Nancy Pelosi, Dianne Feinstein, Chuck Schumer, Mitch McConnell, John McCain, Paul Ryan or any of their family members will ever be affected by anything the enemy does, being protected at all times by a dozen guards with machine guns. It is only the slime-slurping bottom-dwelling taxpayer lowlifes like us that get blown up, shot, stabbed, and run over by the true Islamic faithful. Therefore, there is no cause for alarm.

I am pretty certain of how things will go up to that point. What happens when they laugh in our faces is too hard to predict.
